Notice of Appeal Rights

The Wisconsin Statutes and Administrative Rules establish time period with which requests to review Department decisions must be filed. If you believe that you have a right to challenge this decision, your appeal rights are as follows.

For judicial review of a decision pursuant to sections 227.52 and 227.53, Wis. Stats., you have 30 days after the decision is mailed or otherwise served by the Department, to file your petition with the appropriate circuit court and serve the petition to the Department. Such a petition for judicial review shall name the Department of Natural Resources as the respondent.

To request a contested case hearing pursuant to section 227.42, Wis. Stats., you have 30 days after the decision is mailed or otherwise served by the Department, to serve a petition for hearing on the Secretary of the Department of Natural Resources. The filing of a request for a contested case hearing is not a prerequisite for judicial review and does not extend the 30-day period for filing a petition for review.

This notice is provided pursuant to s. 227.48(2), Wis. Stats.
